PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION.

“PUBLIC UTILITIES ACT.”

The following regulations were prescribed by orders of the Public Utilities Commission made on May 10th, 1945, and May 21st, 1945, pursuant to sections 16, 17, 27, and 53 of the “Public Utilities Act.”:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING TARIFFS (“PUBLIC UTILITIES ACT”).

PART I.

GENERAL.

1.1 Interpretation.

In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:—

“Class of service” denotes the distinction between the different uses of the same kind of service; e.g., domestic, commercial, and industrial:

“Kind of service” denotes the distinction between gas, electricity, water, etc.:

“Rate schedule” means the rate for a particular class of service and any special conditions or rules relating thereto:

“Tariff” means a systematic collection for a particular kind of service of all rates, fares, tolls, charges, rentals, or other compensations, and every rule, regulation, practice, measurement, classification, condition, or contract of the public utility relating thereto.

1.2 Reference.

These regulations may be referred to as the “Regulations respecting Tariffs (‘Public Utilities Act’).”

1.3 Application.

These regulations do not apply to public utilities in respect of tariffs governed by the “Regulations respecting Transportation (‘Public Utilities Act’)” nor in respect of tariffs for ferries operated under licence under the “Ferries Act.” No tariff or amendment hereafter accepted for filing by the Commission shall be invalid by reason only of non-compliance with the provisions hereof respecting form and procedure.

1.4 Repeal.

Regulations 1, 11, 12, 14, and 15 of the Public Utilities Commission are hereby rescinded.

1.5 Effective Date.

These regulations shall come into operation on the 2nd day of July, 1945.

PART II.

FILING OF TARIFFS.

2.1 Compensation governed by Filed Tariff.

No public utility shall provide service to any person free of charge or for compensation unless provision therefor is contained in a tariff on file with the Commission or in an order of the Commission.

2.2 Filing of First Tariff.

A public utility wishing to file rates for the first time for a particular kind of service shall prepare a tariff in the form herein described and submit the same to the Commission for filing, together with estimates and explanations showing the tariff to be just and reasonable. The Commission may refuse to accept the tariff for filing until the proposed customers have had an opportunity to make objections, and may in any case refuse to accept for filing any tariff which is not in accordance with the “Public Utilities Act” or these regulations.

2.3 Correction of Existing Tariffs.

If a public utility has filed any rate with the Commission prior to the effective date of these regulations but has not filed a complete tariff in the form herein prescribed, the utility shall immediately prepare a new tariff in accordance with these regulations and apply to the Commission for its consent to the filing thereof. In the application the rates on file may be referred to as Tariff “P.U.C. No. 1” and the new tariff as Tariff “P.U.C. No. 2.” The tariffs of North-west Telephone Company; Kootenay Telephone Company, Limited; Mission Telephone Company, Limited; and Chilliwack Telephones, Limited, are deemed to be in the form herein prescribed, except in respect of the cover-page, and it shall be sufficient compliance with this paragraph for the said Companies to amend the cover-pages of their existing tariffs.

2.4 Date and Notification of Filing.

A tariff is filed when the Commission formally accepts it for filing. When it is submitted for filing an extra copy should be sent, to be endorsed by the Secretary of the Commission with the date of filing and returned to the public utility.

PART III.

FORM AND CONTENTS OF TARIFF.

3.1 Printing, etc., and Size of Paper.

Tariffs may be printed, typewritten, multi-graphed, or produced by similar process on hard paper of good quality, using one side of the paper only. The pages of a tariff should be approximately 8 by 11 inches in size.

3.2 Pamphlet or Loose-leaf Form.

Tariffs may be in pamphlet or loose-leaf form. If a tariff contains a large number of schedules it should be in loose-leaf form, with not more than one schedule to the page, and should be indexed.

3.3 Serial Number of Tariff.

The first tariff filed by a public utility for a particular kind of service will be numbered “P.U.C. No. 1,” the second “P.U.C. No. 2,” and so on.

3.4 Front Cover-page.

The front cover-page of a tariff should show the following:—

- (1.) Serial number of tariff and serial number of tariff cancelled, if any; e.g., “P.U.C. No. 2, cancels P.U.C. No. 1”;
- (2.) Name of the utility;
- (3.) Kind of service;
- (4.) General statement of territory served;
- (5.) Date of filing with Public Utilities Commission (to be filled in immediately after the Commission accepts the tariff for filing);
- (6.) Date tariff is to become effective; e.g., “Effective _____, 19__ (except as otherwise provided herein)”;
- (7.) Signature of the official of the utility authorized to issue the tariff; and
- (8.) Place where tariff is available for public inspection.

3.5 All Rules and Rates to be stated.

Every tariff shall include:—

- (1.) All the rules and conditions, including all terms contained in contracts with customers and such rules and conditions as have been made by the utility in respect of the following matters:—

- (a.) Method of applying for service:
- (b.) Amount, payment, and return of security deposit:
- (c.) Connection, disconnection, and reconnection charges:
- (d.) Metering, ownership of meters and access to premises:
- (e.) Method and periods of billing and times for payment:
- (f.) Discontinuance of service for non-payment of bill:
- (g.) Liability of utility for and effect on rates of interruptions of service:
- (h.) Any general restrictions on the use of the service not set out in the rate schedules:
- (i.) Method of discontinuance of service by customer:
- (j.) Conditions under which routine connections will be made (e.g., distance from existing lines or mains, contract period, etc.):
- (k.) Conditions under which connections will be made where extension of lines or mains is involved (e.g., method of calculation of increased charges, revenue deficit payments, revenue guarantees, contract periods, etc.):
- (l.) Definitions (e.g., of terms used in availability clauses in rate schedules).
- (2.) Rate schedules showing all rates for the several classes of service.

3.60 Applicability.

Each rate schedule, in addition to a clear statement of all rates thereunder, must state the city, town, village, or area in which the rates are applicable.

3.61 Availability.

Each rate schedule must state the class of service available under the rates stated therein; e.g., "Available for domestic lighting" or "Available for all purposes."

3.62 Minimum Charge.

Each rate schedule other than a schedule of flat rates shall show whether a minimum charge is or is not made and, if made, the amount thereof. It shall also show whether the prompt payment discount, if any, does or does not apply to the minimum charge.

3.7 Identification of Schedules.

In a tariff containing a large number of schedules, each schedule should be identified by a number, letter, or group of letters.

3.8 Special Contracts.

Where service is provided to one customer or very few customers under special circumstances as to manner, time, or quantity of use not existing in the case of others, and it is not convenient to provide therefor in the main body of the tariff, a contract containing all the rates and terms may be filed as a supplement to the tariff, whether the tariff is in pamphlet or loose-leaf form. A supplement may contain more than one contract and shall show on its cover-page the contracts contained therein.

PART IV.

AMENDMENT OF TARIFF.

4.1 Method of Amendment.

A tariff may be amended by filing, with the consent of the Commission:—

- (a.) A new tariff, which states on its face that the previous tariff is cancelled; or
- (b.) A supplement, if the tariff is in pamphlet form; or
- (c.) An additional or revised sheet, if the tariff is in loose-leaf form.

4.2 Supplements.

Supplements should be numbered consecutively and state the serial number of the tariff supplemented. After five supplements have been filed, the next amendment should be made by filing a new tariff cancelling the previous tariff and supplements.

4.3 Revised Sheets (Loose-leaf).

Revised sheets should be numbered consecutively; e.g., "First revision of page 10."

4.4 Effective Date and Date of Filing.

Every new tariff, supplement, or revised sheet shall state on its face the effective date and date of filing, the latter date to be filed in immediately after filing. The date of filing of an amendment is the date on which the Commission formally consents thereto.

4.5 Indication of Amendments.

The effect of an amendment should be indicated by symbols placed beside the particular parts changed, with foot-notes explaining the symbols, or by use of the following letters without further explanation:—

- R for reduction.
- A for advance.
- N for new provision.
- O for omission.
- C for other change.

4.6 Application to Commission.

An amendment submitted for filing shall be accompanied by a written and signed application for the consent of the Commission thereto, setting out the name of the applicant, identification of the proposed revision (e.g., supplement No. 2 to Tariff P.U.C. No. 3), the provisions changed, reason for change, and effect of change. Where rates are changed an estimate of the reduction or increase in annual revenue should be given, together with a statement of the number and location of customers affected and the manner in which they are affected. The application may be in the form set out in the Schedule to these regulations.

4.7 Notification of Filing.

An extra copy of an amendment should be submitted, to be endorsed by the Secretary of the Commission with the date of filing and returned to the public utility.

PART V.

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP OF UTILITY BUSINESS.

5.1 Adoption Notice.

In case of change of ownership or control of a utility business, or when its name is changed, the new utility shall use the tariff of the former utility (unless authorized to change by the Commission) and shall file in duplicate an adoption notice for each kind of service. The adoption notice shall be filed before and state that it is to become effective upon the date of change of ownership or control. It shall set out the name of the new utility and properly identify the tariff adopted. One copy will be returned to the utility with the date of filing endorsed thereon.

5.2 New Tariff.

Within thirty days after the taking-over of a utility business the new utility shall apply to file in its own name the tariff adopted by it, or such other tariff as it proposes to put into effect in lieu thereof. The tariff shall be properly identified. (Example: "P.U.C. No. 1 cancels Adoption Notice filed the _____ day of _____, 19____.") The procedure on the application shall be in accordance with Part IV, of these regulations.

PART VI.

PUBLIC INSPECTION OF TARIFFS.

6.1 Public Inspection of Tariffs.

Every public utility shall keep a copy of its filed tariff, with all supplements and revisions, at its principal office and shall, on request by any person, produce the same for inspection. At each place where applications for service are made or tickets are sold the public utility shall keep, and shall produce for inspection, on request, all parts of its tariff that relate to the service for which any application may be made or any ticket sold at that place. At each place where tickets are sold, the utility shall display prominently the prices to be paid therefor and any special restrictions on their use.
